

What readers are saying about

THE DAYTON JEWISH OBSERVER

Well written. Interesting. Informative. Terrific paper.

It gives me what the local paper doesn't.

Skillfully put together and frank about the problems facing Dayton as well as the successes.

Quality reporting on local and national levels.

Keep up the good work.

I think you do a tremendous job well!

A wide variety of coverage and professional quality.

It is my only regular source of Jewish news.

Love the whole Observer.

Can't wait for it to come each time.

I love
The Observer.
Very tastefully done.

Policies

Guaranteed position is not available except for some year-round, long-term commitments. Placement may be requested, but not guaranteed. Liability for incorrectly printed or omitted advertising extends only to the cost of the advertising space.

Advertisers cancelling placement after deadline are liable for payment in full for the space reserved.

If an advertiser does not furnish The Observer with a new advertisement or advertisement copy on or before the closing date for a given publication, The Observer is authorized to repeat the last advertisement run.

Right of Refusal

The publisher reserves the right to refuse any advertising that violates any current or future written or unwritten policy of acceptability.

Terms

New accounts must prepay their first two insertions in full by the deadline date of the first insertion. Thereafter, accounts are billed on a net 30-day basis.

Delinquent accounts subject to a 1.5% service charge (18% annual rate). Minimum charge on delinquent accounts is 50 cents per month. Political/transient ads are charged at local retail rates and must be prepaid.
