

We don't say we bring you excellent journalism. They do:

THE DAYTON JEWISH OBSERVER

What readers are saying . . .

Well done. There is something for everyone.

I am constantly impressed with the coverage and scope of the Dayton originated articles.

The Observer always has something for every interest. The articles appeal to both Jewish and non-Jewish.

Provides an excellent selection of local, national, and international news on topics important (and sometimes fun) for the Jewish community.

Covers the community fairly.

I learn something new each time I read it.

It connects me to the larger Jewish community.

I learn a great deal and it makes me think.

Look forward to receiving it each month.

Gives me a sense of belonging, both locally as well as the world Jewish community.

I love The Observer.
Very tastefully done.

Policies

Guaranteed position is not available except for some year-round, long-term commitments. Placement may be requested, but not guaranteed. Liability for incorrectly printed or omitted advertising extends only to the cost of the advertising space.

Advertisers cancelling placement after deadline are liable for payment in full for the space reserved.

If an advertiser does not furnish The Observer with a new advertisement or advertisement copy on or before the closing date for a given publication, The Observer is authorized to repeat the last advertisement run in the publication.

Right of Refusal

The publisher reserves the right to refuse any advertising that violates any current or future written or unwritten policy of acceptability.

Terms

New accounts must prepay their first two insertions in full by the deadline date of the first insertion. Thereafter, accounts are billed on a net 30-day basis.

Delinquent accounts subject to a 1.5% service charge (18% annual rate). Minimum charge on delinquent accounts is 50 cents per month. Political/transient ads are charged at local retail rates and must be prepaid.
